

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Alan Amman
aamman@mprm.com
Caitlin McGee
cmcgee@mprm.com
323-933-3399

MAYA ENTERTAINMENT ACQUIRES INTERNATIONAL RIGHTS TO REPEATERS

International Rights to Thriller Starring
Dustin Milligan, Amanda Crew and Richard de Klerk
Available at the Cannes International Film Festival

LOS ANGELES (May 9, 2011) – Maya Entertainment has acquired the international rights to Repeaters, a gritty mind-bending thriller from director Carl Bessai (Normal, Emile) starring Amanda Crew (Charlie St. Cloud, The Haunting in Connecticut), Dustin Milligan (90210, The Messengers) and Richard de Klerk (Cole, Beyond Sherwood Forest). Elias Axume, EVP, International Distribution for Maya will represent the film for foreign sales at the Cannes International Film Festival market.

Featuring music by The Antlers, Black Mountain, The Kills and We Are Wolves, Repeaters is the story about three twenty-somethings who find themselves in an impossible time labyrinth, where each day they waken to the same terrifying day as the preceding one. The three characters quickly embrace their new gift, but then begin splitting into two camps – Kyle and Sonia want to help people, while Mike finds more satisfaction in raping and killing.

“We are excited to have acquired this edgy thriller featuring such popular young talent as Amanda Crew, Dustin Milligan and Richard de Klerk just in time for the Cannes market,” said

Repeaters – Page 2

Maya's Axume. "The International markets respond extremely well to films in the sci-fi/action/thriller genre, of which Repeaters is a great example."

Repeaters was produced by Jason James (Cole, "Robson Arms") Richard de Klerk, Irene Nelson (Cole) and Carl Bessai. The deal was negotiated by Andrew Herwitz of The Film Sales Company on behalf of the producers, and by Tonantzin Esparza, Director of Acquisitions, on behalf of Maya Entertainment.

MAYA ENTERTAINMENT | www.maya-entertainment.com

Based in Los Angeles, Maya Entertainment Group, Inc. is an independent multi-platform content and distribution company that has established itself as the leader of media product that appeals to the "new mainstream" of American Latino and Multi-cultural audiences. Led by entertainment industry pioneers, Moctesuma Esparza (Selena, Gettysburg) and Jeff Valdez (Sí TV, QuePasa.com), Maya Entertainment produces, acquires and distributes entertainment programming and has established a library of over 100 titles, which are available at retail, for rental, and on VOD through Time Warner Cable, Comcast, iN DEMAND, and TVN.

Maya's International Distribution division, headed by Elias Axume, sells rights to its entertainment properties worldwide and has a presence at key markets including Berlin Film Festival/European Film Market, Hong Kong FILMART, Cannes Film Festival, MIP-TV, Toronto International Film Festival, MIPCOM and AFM. Currently, Maya International is selling rights to La Mission, starring Benjamin Bratt; The Jesuit, starring Michelle Rodriguez and Willem Dafoe; Café, starring Jennifer Love Hewitt and Jamie Kennedy; Without Men starring Eva Longoria Parker, Christian Slater and Oscar Nunez; Across the Line, starring Aidan Quinn and Mario van Peebles; and the action-adventure Nightcrew, among others.

Maya's recent theatrical and home video releases include the Official 2010 Sundance selection The Dry Land, starring America Ferrera, Jason Ritter, and Wilmer Valderrama; the action-drama Across the Line starring Aidan Quinn, Mario Van Peebles, and Andy Garcia; and Sins of My Father (Pecados de mi Padre), the true story of Pablo Escobar, the infamous boss of Colombia's Medellin drug cartel, as told through the eyes of his son. Coming soon from Maya are Sympathy for Delicious, directed by and starring Mark Ruffalo, Orlando Bloom, Laura Linney and Juliette Lewis; and Without Men, starring Eva Longoria Parker, Christian Slater and Oscar Nunez.